

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's talk about parties! How was the party last night? Was it good?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- How was the last party you were at?

Can Do Statements

- I can express negative statements in the past using wasn't and weren't.
- I can describe people.
- I can talk about a work party.

Let's Explore!

Jason and Danielle talk about an event from their work. Were there a lot of people?

* "Were" is a form of the past tense of the verb to be.

"Where" is a Wh- question word.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Jason: How was the party for Mr. Jones last night?

Danielle: It wasn't bad. The speakers were easy to understand. Mr. Jones was very funny! His wife was there. She's very intelligent. The speeches were interesting. They weren't long.

Jason: Were there a lot of speeches?

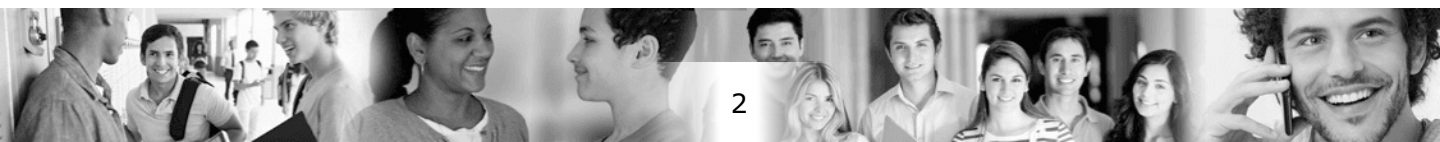

Danielle: There were some, but not many. There was a short presentation by his son. There were film clips and photos. His children are so tall! There were a couple of songs and a funny poem. There was never a dull moment!

Jason: It sounds like it was a nice evening.

Danielle: Yes it was. Too bad you weren't there.

Jason: Call me next time! My phone number is 555-212-1976.

Danielle: Sure!

Let's Practice!

How was the work party? Do you remember the important words?

Instructions: Match the word with the meaning.

clip	a person who gives a formal talk
speech	a formal message a person says to a group of people
poem	information you give to a group of people with sound and images
speaker	a small part
presentation	a style of creative writing, usually short

Let's Practice!

Were the speeches interesting? Was it a good party?

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

1. It _____ bad.
2. There was _____ a dull moment.
3. The speeches _____ interesting.
4. Too bad you _____ there!
5. There was a short _____ by his son.

Word Bank

weren't wasn't presentation
never were

Extension Activity

Let's talk about the last party you were at!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Practice the dialogue in this takeaway with your partner.
- Underline the adjectives after the verb to be.
- Write a new dialogue with your partner and talk about a party.
- Use the past tense of the verb to be in the negative.
- Present your dialogue in class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I use the Past tense of to be in the negative.

☐
☐

I write a dialogue about a party.

☐
☐

I read the dialogue with a partner.

☐
☐

Target Words

- speaker (noun): a person who gives a formal talk
e.g. The speaker at the event was funny.
- speech (noun): a formal message a person says to a group of people
e.g. He gave a short speech at the party.
- presentation (noun): information you give to a group of people with sound and images
e.g. The sales presentation was interesting.
- clip (noun): a small part
e.g. It was a short clip from a movie.
- a couple of (expression): two
e.g. He had a couple of sandwiches and a soft drink.
- poem (noun): a style of creative writing, usually short
e.g. He wrote a beautiful poem.
- Never a dull moment! (expression): always exciting
e.g. The concert was great - never a dull moment!
- Too bad you weren't there! (expression): I'm sorry you weren't there
e.g. The party was fun - too bad you weren't there!

Learning Points

The Negative of the Past Tense of To Be

To make a negative statement in the past, you use the words never, not or the letters n't after the verb.

	Long Form	Short Form
I He She	was not	wasn't	there yesterday.
We You They	were not	weren't	interested in the party.

Examples:

- She wasn't happy.
- You were not at the party.
- There was never a dull moment.

Talking About a Work Party

You can ask about a work party using the Past tense of the verb to be.
You can describe a work party using adjectives after the verb to be.

Question	Qualities
How was the work party? How was it? Was the work party nice?	It was interesting. It wasn't bad. Yes! There was never a dull moment. Too bad you weren't there!

