Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where were your grandparents from?
- Were your grandparents famous?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and say who people were.
- I can use words to describe people and family members.
- I can express possession.
- I can express how far or how near objects are.

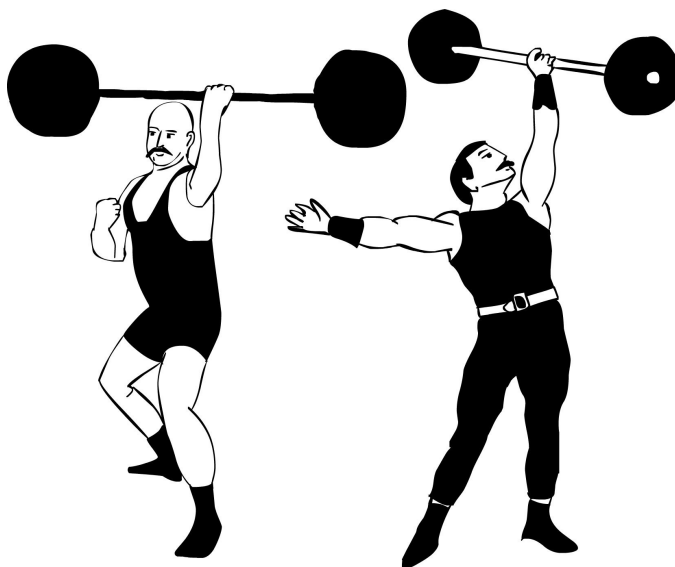

Let's Explore!

Listen to the dialogue at the art show. Who are the strongmen in the picture?

* A "strongman" is a circus performer who is very strong.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Woman: Who are those people?

Guide: These were the legendary Lester Brothers, Hans and Uli—strongmen in the circus.

Woman: Where were they from? Were they American?

Guide: No, they weren't. They were born in Germany. This picture was from their first show.

Woman: When was that?

Guide: That was in 1905. That year, they were famous but they weren't happy.

Woman: That's too bad.

Guide: Yes, it was. They were young and married. They were far from their family. Hans was away from his wife.

Woman: Was this Hans?

Guide: No this was Uli. He was my great-grandfather!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Asking and Saying Who People Were

You use the Past tense of the verb to be to ask and say who people were.

	I, He, She, It	We, You, They
Affirmative	was	were
Negative	wasn't	weren't
Yes/no questions	Was ... ?	Were ... ?
Wh- question	Who was ... ?	Who were ... ?
Wh- question	Where was ... ?	Where were ... ?
Wh- question	What was ... ?	What were ... ?
Wh- question	How was ... ?	How were ... ?

Examples:

- Jane: Who were they?
- Jason: They were circus performers.
- Jane: Was he born in the USA?
- Jason: No, he wasn't. He was born in Germany.

Plural Demonstrative Adjectives

Demonstrative adjectives point something out. The plural forms are these and those.
 You use these when people and things are close.
 You use those when people and things are far.

	These	Those
Affirmative	These people were strongmen.	Those people were magicians.
Negative	These strongmen weren't famous.	Those strongmen weren't brothers.
