

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Retirement. What's that? Let's go to Frank Jones' retirement party and find out!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- Who was an important person in your life?
- Why was this person important?

Can Do Statements

- I can express, deny or ask about basic information in the past.
- I can describe people.
- I can say and ask who people were using jobs.

Let's Explore!

Frank Jones retires today. He was a strong* and intelligent leader. Listen to the speaker talk about Frank.

* You use the Simple Past tense to talk about something that is finished.

 "Strong" is an adjective. It means powerful. It can describe a person's physical features or the way a person acts.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Ladies and Gentlemen, Mr. Frank Jones retires tonight.

Who was Frank Jones?

He was the director of our school for 30 years. He was also a good teacher.

Was he a good director?

Yes. He was not our first director, but he was our best director.

How was Frank Jones?

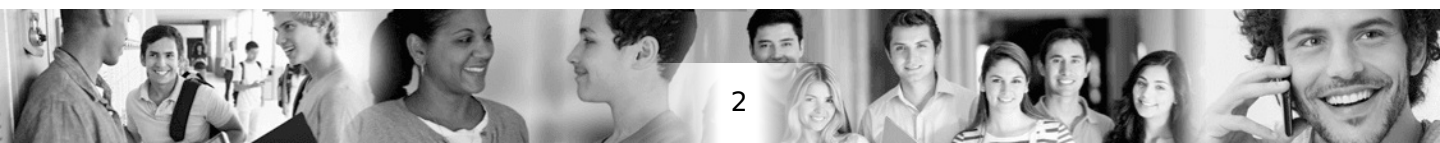

Frank was a strong and hard-working leader. His job was not easy. He was a great manager.

We were all on his team. He was always there to listen. He was there to help. He was a positive role model.

We are sad to see him leave.

All the best Frank.

A toast to Frank Jones. Cheers!

Let's Practice!

Can you find the missing words?

Instructions: Find the following words in the word search:

Words

1. First
2. Best
3. Hard-working
4. Strong
5. Positive
6. Leader
7. Director
8. Teacher

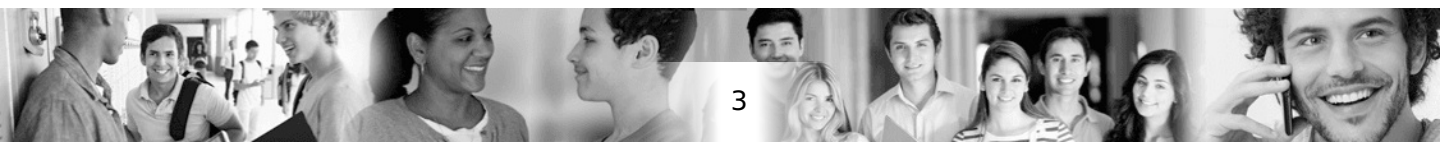

Let's Practice!

Positive or negative? First or last? What do you think?

Instructions: Write the sentences in the correct category (positive or negative).

He was not our first director. / He was always there to listen and to help. /
He was our best director. / Frank was hard-working and a strong leader. /
He was a good teacher. / His job wasn't easy.

Positive	Negative

Extension Activity

Who is your role model? What about your partner's role model?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Interview your partner about their role model.
- Ask them:
 - their name
 - their job
 - Why are they important to them?
- Write the answers.
- Let your partner interview you.
- Present your information to the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about role models.

☐
☐

I write 5 sentences.

☐
☐

I describe people.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to retire (verb): to end work at 65+ (over 65 years old)
e.g. I am now 65 and ready to retire.
- director (noun): the person at the top of a company
e.g. The director called a company meeting.
- hard-working (adjective): putting care and effort into your work
e.g. He is a hard-working person.
- strong (adjective): with a lot of power, energy
e.g. She was a strong candidate for the job.
- leader (noun): a person that manages other people
e.g. She is a political leader.
- role model (noun): a person people admire and copy
e.g. She is a great person. She is my role model.
- All the best! (expression): a positive message to someone e.g. Happy Retirement! All the best!

Learning Points

Asking and Saying Who People Were Using Jobs

You ask about people's jobs with the Past tense of the verb to be.
You answer with an affirmative or negative answer.

Question	Answer
Was he a good leader?	Yes, he was strict but he was fair. No, he was never nice.
How was Frank Jones as a leader?	He was a hard-working director and a strong leader. He wasn't a strong leader.
How was the director?	The director was always there to help. The director was not a role model.

