Let's Start!

Childhood memories: These are things you remember all your life!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is one of your first memories?
- Was it a good memory?
- How old were you?

Can Do Statements

- I can express how far or how near an object is.
- I can describe people.
- I can express possession using my, your.

Let's Explore!

Toby tells Janice about his favorite childhood memory. Who was with him? Was it his brother with straight hair or curly hair? Let's find out!

* "Straight hair" is the opposite of curly hair.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Janice: So Toby, what is your favorite childhood memory?
Toby: It's a concert. It was my first concert. I was eight years old. See? This photo is from the concert.
Janice: Who was that singer?
Toby: It was a band called the B-Boys.
Janice: That band was my favorite too! How was that concert?
Toby: It was exciting! My brother and his friend were there too.
Janice: Your brother with long straight hair?
Toby: No, my brother Alex. He is very tall with short curly hair.
Janice: You were lucky.
Toby: The B-Boys were great. Their audience was so happy.
Janice: So there was nothing disappointing about that memory?
Toby: Well, I was too short to see the band!
Janice: That's awful!
Toby: Not really. It's still my favorite memory!

Let's Practice!

My brother Alex ... Your brother John ... Who are they? Let's review.

Instructions: Fill in the blanks in the dialogue. Use their, your, his, my.
